

MYTH VS. FACT #2

MYTH:

IP addresses going to county websites or systems are evidence of hacking.

FACT:

IP addresses indicate a person visited a website. Every time you visit a website, the IP address assigned to your computer will show up on the report. There is zero evidence of any unauthorized intrusions into Iowa's election systems. A county's website has no connection to any election equipment.