

News Release:

For the 2022 Primary Election the following Ida County offices will be on the Republican and Democratic ballots:

Board of Supervisor District 3, Supervisor Rhett Leonard stated that he will not be seeking re-election.

Signatures needed from eligible electors of District 3 on petition form are as follows:

Republican candidate – 19 signatures

Democratic candidate – 7 signatures

- With the census redistricting, District 3 now covers the current area of: All of Corwin township, including the City of Ida Grove; also the following portion of Grant township, sections 1-6 those eligible electors residing to the north of 290th Street.

County Treasurer, Traci Riessen (Rep) incumbent

County Recorder, Julie Phillips (Rep) incumbent

County Attorney, Meghann Whitmer (Dem) incumbent

Signatures needed for County Treasurer, Recorder and Attorney from eligible electors of Ida County on petition form are as follows:

Republican candidate – 58 signatures

Democratic candidate – 19 signatures

Filing dates for all Ida County offices are March 7-25, 2022; with the Ida County Auditor.

Nomination Petitions and Affidavit of Candidacy papers may be obtained at the Ida County Auditor's office or online at www.sos.iowa.gov